

Librarian of the Year 2017-18 (Schools) award.

“Librarians have always been among the most thoughtful and helpful people. They are teachers without a classroom. No libraries, no progress.”

— Willard Scott

To recognize the efforts of School Librarians in shaping the life of the students (by encouraging them to read good books), we have thought of this award. The award is sponsored by one of the best teacher I know. i.e. my Grandmother (72 Yrs.) a retired School Principal, who helped thousands of her students to become a better human being. She gifted them “Love for books” at an early stage of their student life.

1. Every School Librarian is eligible to participate in this competition. There is no fees for the participation.
2. Please share your brief profile (Name, qualification, small JPG photograph, how many years you are working with this School? Contact number & e-mail address). A short note on Special efforts done (or best practices) by you/your School to encourage the children to read the books. Please send this information by an e-mail to mentor@ihavereadthebook.com
3. The winner will be one, whose School has received maximum points through the participation of its students in various activities, competitions conducted by www.ihavereadthebook.com.

The award

Trophy with ihavereadthebook.com Logo

&

A Cash award of INR 7000(USD 100)

The name of the winner will be announced on 15th May 2018.

Ms Vaishali Patil

Librarian, Sanjay Ghodawat International School, Kolhapur is the Winner for Year 2016-17

Dear School Librarians,

Humble request to be a part of this competition & support me in

“spreading the Love for Books among the School Children.”

With best regards

Atharv